

SHORT-TERM Missions

crossworld®

All Professions. One Mission.

Mediterranean Mosaic

Step into a cross-cultural summer where language, service, and relationship-building come together. You'll join our team in helping lead a vibrant English camp for local families, immigrants, and refugees. Through games, conversations, presence, and prayers you'll build real friendships and open doors for deeper connection.

Along the way, you'll explore the rich blend of cultures in southern Spain and spend time in North Africa, learning how language, history, and faith shape daily life on both sides of the Mediterranean. Meet long-term workers, hear their stories, and participate in the ongoing work of hospitality, community care, and creative outreach.

Over 12 days you'll experience hands-on ministry, meaningful relationships, and a glimpse into God's work among diverse peoples. This trip will push you, stretch your faith, and invite you into something bigger.

Application deadline: March 1, 2026

Cost: $3,150 + airfare + insurance

Travel dates: July 3 - 14, 2026

The South Asia Mission Experience

Step into a rich cultural and spiritual landscape as you spend three unforgettable weeks exploring the language, history, and heart of Southeast Asia. Experience firsthand what it takes to begin to learn a new language as you interact daily with locals — observing how they think, live, and relate within this vibrant Asian culture.

Gain insight into Theravada Buddhism and reflect on how a history marked by war and genocide has shaped the nation's present-day society and political realities. Along the way, discover God's global work as you meet long-term workers serving in diverse fields — business, creative arts, trauma-informed care, community development, education, and more. Hear their stories of calling and obedience as they live out disciple-making where God has placed them.

Catch a vision for how you might encounter the realities of the least reached in this region and offer your own gifts in meaningful service alongside the local community.
